

Continuing Education @ Niagara University presents

Art Crime and the FBI

Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2017

Castellani Art Museum
at Niagara University

10 a.m. – Noon

Meet Me at CAM — special fall edition

Guest Speaker:
Special Agent Christopher McKeogh

What are some of the greatest art crimes that the FBI has investigated? Some of them may even have a local connection. Join us and find out in this exciting discussion from a top expert with the FBI.

Christopher McKeogh is a former university science professor and possesses two master's degrees in physics. As a special agent with the FBI, he has over 14 years of experience working investigations. SA McKeogh currently exclusively investigates art crime matters in the FBI's New York office. His efforts have led to the arrest and conviction of numerous perpetrators of art crime and have led to the recovery of countless works of art, from antiquity to modern.

FREE. Tickets available beginning Sept. 14.

Only 200 tickets are available and you must have a ticket to attend. Numbered tickets will be available for pick up only at the CAM during regular hours. Contact Susan Clements at 716.286.8201 for more information.

Co-sponsors: Castellani Art Museum, Niagara University Continuing Education, FBI Buffalo Field Office, NU Criminal Justice Student Association.

To register and for more information: 716.286.8181 or www.niagara.edu/ce

Niagara University, N.Y. 14109 • www.niagara.edu